also seemed very confused and asked what I knew about it. I did tell him if he should receive anymore calls to make sure he does not give out any of his personal information over the phone. Again, very adamant that it was not a scam. He mentioned [REDACTED] (from Connecticut), and asked that I call her to find out what she knows about him owing money. I called and left her a message. I also called his son, [REDACTED] and was only able to leave a message as well.

Narrative:

Daughter spoke with her father. She confirmed that he sounded confused and she reassured him that she is the one that takes care of all bills and finances. She also noted that her brother, his son, is no longer allowed to be on the property and should not be called in the event we need to make contact with family.
