RE: Portsmouth Network for Good Community Fair at the Portsmouth Public Library

On Saturday, March 24, from 1-4pm, the Portsmouth College Women's Club and the Portsmouth Public Library will host the first annual 'Portsmouth Network for Good' Community Fair.

Call for participants in the first annual community fair for small non-profits

The Portsmouth Public Library and the Portsmouth College Women's Club are seeking participants for the first annual 'Portsmouth Network for Good' Community Fair, an event for small non-profits. The fair will assist small Portsmouth-based community organizations in promoting their mission and introduce the wide variety of volunteer-based organizations in Portsmouth. The date of the fair is Saturday, March 24, 2012 from 1-4 pm in the Levenson Room of the Portsmouth Public Library.

For this event "small Portsmouth-based community organizations" are defined as organizations that have adopted bylaws and are registered with the State of New Hampshire or Federal Government as a tax-exempt and/or charitable organization and that have a membership of less than 100 persons. Organizations whose mission does not directly benefit the Portsmouth community are not eligible for participation.

Registration is first-come/first-serve and a maximum of 15 organizations will be showcased. For more information and to register for this event, contact Johanna Lyons, Vice President, of the Portsmouth College Women's Club at pcwclub@gmail.com. Registered participants will be notified of an organizational meeting to be held in early March.

The object of the Portsmouth College Women's Club is to promote closer fellowship among the college women of the Portsmouth area and to unite them in any educational endeavors they may wish to undertake, with special emphasis on scholarships. The club distributed over $10,000 in scholarships last year.

The library is located at 175 Parrott Avenue next to the Middle School. Please visit our website for more information www.cityofportsmouth.com/library.
