

Portsmouth Public Library

invites all backyard gardeners to our summer series.
Five Thursday evenings in
July and August @ 7PM
Levenson Room

July 9 – Restoring an Eighteenth Century Garden

Leslie Stevens, Master Gardener Intern, will speak about the restoration of the gardens at the Weeks House in Greenland.

July 16 - The Herbalist's Garden

An illustrated talk which brings to life living histories through heirloom herbs by Jon Forti, Curator of Historic Gardens and Landscapes at Strawberry Banke Museum .

July 23 - Composting and Rain Gardens of Portsmouth

Silke Psula, Solid Waste Coordinator, Public Works Department of the City of Portsmouth, will share her expertise on rain gardens and composting from your kitchen to the benefit of your garden.

July 30 - Honeybees in Your Garden: Keeping or Attracting These Premier Pollinators

Amy Antonucci will talk about the goodness honeybees bring to your backyard garden and offer suggestions for plants that will attract them.

August 6 - Special Movie Night with music by Yo Yo Ma

"The Music Garden" (60 min.) features Bach's Suite No. 1 for Unaccompanied Cello with garden designer Julie Moir Messervy and documentary filmmaker, Kevin McMahon "The Sound of the Carceri" (55 min.) features Bach's Suite No. 2 for Unaccompanied Cello.

Portsmouth Public
Library
175 Parrott Avenue
Portsmouth, NH 03801
603-427-1540

Visit the Library Garden
while you are here

www.cityofportsmouth.com/library